(c) India's contribution in controlling illicit traffic amongst SAARC countries pertains to strengthening of regional cooperation. To improve this, India participated in the formulation of a SAARC Convention on the subject in February, 1990. India also hosted two Conferences, one of legal experts in December, 1989 and one of enforcement officers in September, 1991. Indian officials have also participated in SAARC Confgrences of Enforcement Officers in Colombo in March, 1991 and in Dhaka in July, 1991.
